- Summary :-

Having good personality is very important to Successful in our life. The first chapter of this book tells about the Humility. Humility is a wonderful quality. Being humble means you are well mannered, that you are not proud. If you respect your elders and love your youngers it means you have the quality of humility. I really appreciate a Thought "If you want to gain Knowledge,you must be humble and after you have knowledge. you must be humble. If you speak politely and gently people will be ready with respect to work for you.if toy try in bully the same people or be strict with them they will pay no attention to your words. Just like the tree that bends during a Storm. You does not move from its place this is the strength of humility. Humility is the most attractive quality learn to be humble and you will be loved nobody loves a cloves but arrogant girl. It is wronge.in fact to be proud of knowledge. After all it is God who gave you Knowledge. you only made use of it. The second chapter of this book says about Compassion. Compassion Comes from the heart. When a person is unkind that he heartless. He does not understand the pain and So now of others. a wild animal is cruel. It has no pity for other Creatures. It Kills a person without Compassion is like a wild animal you must show kindness to all forms of life. The bible says that only those who are kind to animal as well as man Can be Called Kind. Hajarat Mohammed Said that Allah is kind to those who are kind to allah creature non violence is the basic of Hindu touchings in spite of all this violence is constantly increasing no religion teaches us to recent to violence yet. we kill birds and animal in order to eat their flesh Gandhiji used to say that any religion that does not preach Kindness is a fake religion that does not proach kindness is a fake religion. there is no Compassion these can be no love For example, when you see someone an no pain, you foot sad if you are not moved to Kind now by pain and Suffering.

you Simply Cannot be Called a poison the third chapter of this book Says about forgive and religious people always punish others without forgot some there is Something more than punishment it is forgiveness the quality of forgiveness makes one a better person. both the and forgiver and forgiveness is the noblest virtue. There is a saying in Sanskrit that you should know Not even the wicked Can harm a man who hold the sword for of forgiveness whom fora falls on a grass less patch if only puts itself out This means that there Cannot be any fight where those is not even the least thought of revenge. It is not easy to forgive. It is easier to lose and your temper But it is better to forgive. The better to fourth chapter of this book is honesty. You must heard the saying "honesty is the best policy". At all Costs and at all times. It is best to be honest. Honesty linked to trust. you are honest, Honesty you Closely Cannot must a dishonest person, gives a lot of charity go to the temple regularly. A man a woman may to be very religious. They will doubt their in God. Honesty lives in mind, in outward your heart, in may Seem faith your Soul. It has nothing to do with The world work ship appearances. The world inner beauty that is born out of honesty.

- My View :-

I really appreciate the writer book because of good writing about how to make good personality to be successful. If I ignore the use hard words in this book it is a beautiful book. Intuit gives a beautiful explanation about the honesty, humility etc. which makes beautiful personality the writer for the good writings about the of this really really appreciate good personality builders. but the one thing which I really liked is that the writer used the all religious very clearly. really it was great book.
